ABOUT QUEENS COURT

Queens Court is in Jedburgh, midway between Newcastle upon Tyne and Edinburgh. This bustling market town features all the amenities you would expect from a town of this size, and the development is within walking distance of the High Street where banks, supermarkets and other shops are situated. There are also bus services to Edinburgh and the local area.

The development is made up of 35 mainly one-bedroomed flats over three storeys. A lift ensures easy access to the upper levels.

A Development Manager is on site five days a week to help out in an emergency and to look after the day-to-day administration of the development.

What is sheltered housing?

Sheltered housing is aimed at the over 60s and security is paramount. At Queens Court, there is a secure main entrance and each property has its own front door.

Queens Court is classed as a 'housing with care' development. Hanover works in partnership with Scottish Borders Council to offer residents their own personal care delivered by Hanover's own on-site staff. The service is flexible as staff are not under the same time pressures as visiting care services, and the type of care package can be easily adjusted depending on the residents' needs.

All properties feature a good sized living room with a separate bedroom. The properties boast double glazing and are heated by gas central heating. Each kitchen features space for an electric cooker.

ABOUT QUEENS COURT

Communal facilities

Queens Court features a fully furnished and carpeted lounge. Residents are free to use the lounge as they please and invite friends and neighbours to join them here.

Hanover may on occasion require to use the lounge for meetings and the room may also be used by outside groups in which case a charge will be levied to the group using it.

A communal laundry features modern washers and tumble driers and the communal gardens also feature rotary driers.

Hanover looks after the gardens however if space allows we can often make a patch available to individuals to look after.

TV Aerial

A communal TV aerial is provided, with a socket in every living room, meaning individual aerials aren't required.

Guest bedroom

Queens Court features a well-equipped guest bedroom for visiting friends or relatives. For a small fee to cover costs, the bedroom can be booked up to two months in advance. Priority bookings are given to relatives of a resident who is ill.

Alarm system

All the properties are fitted with a community alarm system, which allows residents to summon help in an emergency 24 hours a day.

Pets

Pets are welcome but we must know if residents are planning to keep them. If residents have a dog they must exercise them outside the development's grounds.

A car park is provided for the use of residents and visitors to the development. It is not possible to allocate car parking spaces to individual residents.
